Angela,

Well, it's about over for us. We are doomed to marriage!! But, I am happy about it and I am sure you are too.
We never got the chance to become really close, but we do have a lot in common (being engaged + getting married right after high school). It has been nice knowing you, and I hope we can keep in touch! Best of luck with your marriage and your life in general!

Angela
it's been a great year and it's been a time to remember forever I hope you had fun too. May you always reach your goals in life especially if they are also what God wants for
you. Stay sweet.

Well Angela,

(week)
it's over last year. Can you believe it. It has been a blast. I hope you + Larry are as happy as you look now, forever (and always) Thanks for the support in choir. I would never had made it. Especially through the trio. (which I screwed up royally). I'll miss you.

Good luck with everything you do.

Thanks,
Sheryl

Angela,
Well the year is over!
Can you believe it will finally graduating! I'm really glad we have gotten to be such good friends! You're a really sweet person! English would never have seen the same without you.

Keep in touch wherever you go!
I hope you
and Larry are very happy together!
Love ya

Angela,

I'm sure
we'll be seeing more of each other this summer.
You'll regret making
me wear a tie.
You're a very sweet person. Don't ever change. See ya on the big day.

Have a good one!

Love,

Angela,
It has been great knowing
you. You are sweet.
A super singer!
No. Good luck
in the future!
Have a great summer.
Dya,

Angela-

I have been glad to get to know you in choir. Good luck
in the married life. Make it last!

See ya!

Angela ~

It's been great these last two years in Choir - with a few minor ups + downs. You're really someone very special - with so much going for you. 'I wish the best for you - always.' You have that "something" that's going to help make all your goals + dreams come true - But only you can make that happen! The best of luck through out. (Straight from the heart.) I'll see you around - I'm sure of it. Take Care. And make the best out of each + every day!

Angela,

Hope you have a great time this summer! Good luck getting married!

Joe

Always,

Together

We pass each other in the halls day after day, and even though we may not know each other, there is a unity that is felt by our student body.

We all share the anxiety of the victories and defeats life brings to our school. We cheer each victory and find comfort in each defeat.

We watch our community grow and contribute to the daily life of all those around us as we become more and more involved in our world.

Through our many clubs, we enhance each part of our lives and demonstrate the invisible force of unity we all feel.

We are pulled completely together by the devotion of our teachers as they show us the various paths to follow and where each one will lead us.

Without the pulling together of everyone, our school would not be the same because . . . We're all in this

THOSE LAZY CRAZY

Summer of '86 came and went leaving memories of sunny days and late nights. Windsurfing, tanning, skiing, swimming, and traveling were some of the many activities students took part in. Their views best express the summer's events . . .

Senior Lynn Oxford said, "I guess this was an all right summer. I spent most of my time out at the lake with Aaron Dayringer. We had a good time swimming, boating, and cooking out. The only thing I regret about this is not getting a 'good tan.'" Kevin Kreeger, senior, said his summer consisted of "Ann Elliot, Pizza Hut Delivery, and the pursuit of parties." Junior Kelly Joyner said his summer could have been better . . . "I worked nights and the only time I really got to see anybody was on Saturdays. Um . . . that's about it."

Over the summer most of the student body had a memorable time. Although there were many disappointments there were just as many triumphs. The summer is over, but the memories will never leave. All of our memories will lie in the sun of the summer of '86.

RHS COMES

Rogers High School orientation took place on Monday, Sept. 2, the first "official" day of school. Many students came back with hopes of meeting new people and talking over their summer experiences with old friends. Locker combinations from last year had to be pushed aside for the new ones this year, and new schedules had to be memorized.

This year the faculty had increased again to keep up with the fast growth of RHS. New teachers this year were Mrs. Granderson, Miss Abernathy, Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. Welchel, Mr. Bright, and Mr. Barr.

ACK TO LIFE

On the second day of school, students hurried onto their 1st hour class hoping they would survive the rest of the day, which primarily consisted of listening to school policies and the handing out of textbooks.

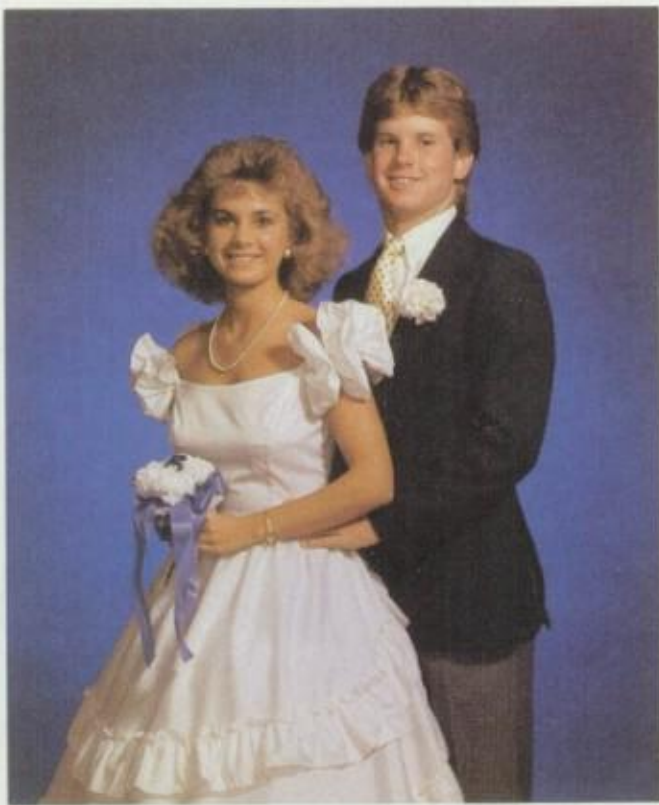

By attending the first game of the season against Kickapoo, many people showed their spirit proving once again that "We're all in this together."

Celebration '86!!!

Many activities in preparing for Homecoming took place weeks before the big game against the Coffeyville Tornadoes: the Homecoming Court was selected, floats were designed and built by enthusiastic students in every grade in hopes of winning the annual float contest, the Mock Homecoming pep rally in which the teachers had a chance to show their Mountie spirit by dressing up as the queen and court, cheerleaders, drill team, football team and the band. The last activity took place the day of the game; the parade, in which most of the town participated in by showing off just how much Mountie spirit they really had. Rogers schools were let out early so the students could either participate in the parade or support the team from the sidelines.

The court was not alone in working hard to make it an error-free performance. The RHS band had been practicing their music for the parade and for on the field at halftime. The Mountie Royal Drill Team and the cheerleaders had perfected routines and cheers, and they along with the student body were looking forward to kick-off as well.

The night ended with a defeat, the final score being 21-15. The Mountie football team worked hard to make another Homecoming victory for the Mountaineers, but Coffeyville was determined to break Rogers record-breaking winning streak of 29 winnings of Homecoming in a row.

Even though we had lost, the student body still stood behind the football team by attending in high spirits the dance, sponsored by the student council, after the game.

The Benton County Fair was held on Sept. 16 through Sept. 20, with a fair parade in Bentonville on Sept. 20, which consisted of bands, floats, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, cheerleaders and drill teams.

The Rogers Marching

Mountie Band, Oakdale Patriot Band, Elmwood Raider Band and bands from Bentonville participated in the parade.

Others from Rogers were the varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders and the Mountie Royal Drill Team.

September 20 was arm band day. Anyone could buy an armband for one price and ride all the rides as many times as they wanted all day. For the older kids, there was the haunted house and the Back to the Future ride.

Pep rallies are the place for everyone to show their school spirit, and at RHS, this was no exception. The year's first pep rally was held outside, so it was hard to get into the spirit of things while sliding on wet grass. Pep rallies that followed were held in the gym. Students and faculty from then on let their spirit shine through.

Although the sophomores were a little weary at first, they soon found out how much fun a pep rally could be if everyone was spirited. From the football team to the Mountie mascot, Monte Duncan, there was spirit throughout the gym.

Days before the Homecoming Court was to be introduced an interesting pep rally took place. The faculty conducted a Mock Homecoming, in which the males took the places of the queen and maids, while their escorts were female football players. Other faculty members took the place of the football team, drill team, band and cheerleaders.

All in all, the 86-87 pep rallies won't soon be forgotten.

RHS IS MASKED ONCE AGAIN

Halloween was celebrated in the traditional way this year at Rogers High School. The Key Club held a dance in the cafeteria on October 25, to raise money for the United Fund. Students and faculty dressed up in a variety of different Halloween attire, with costumes that ranged from dolls to gory monsters, not to mention students running around with strange colored hair.

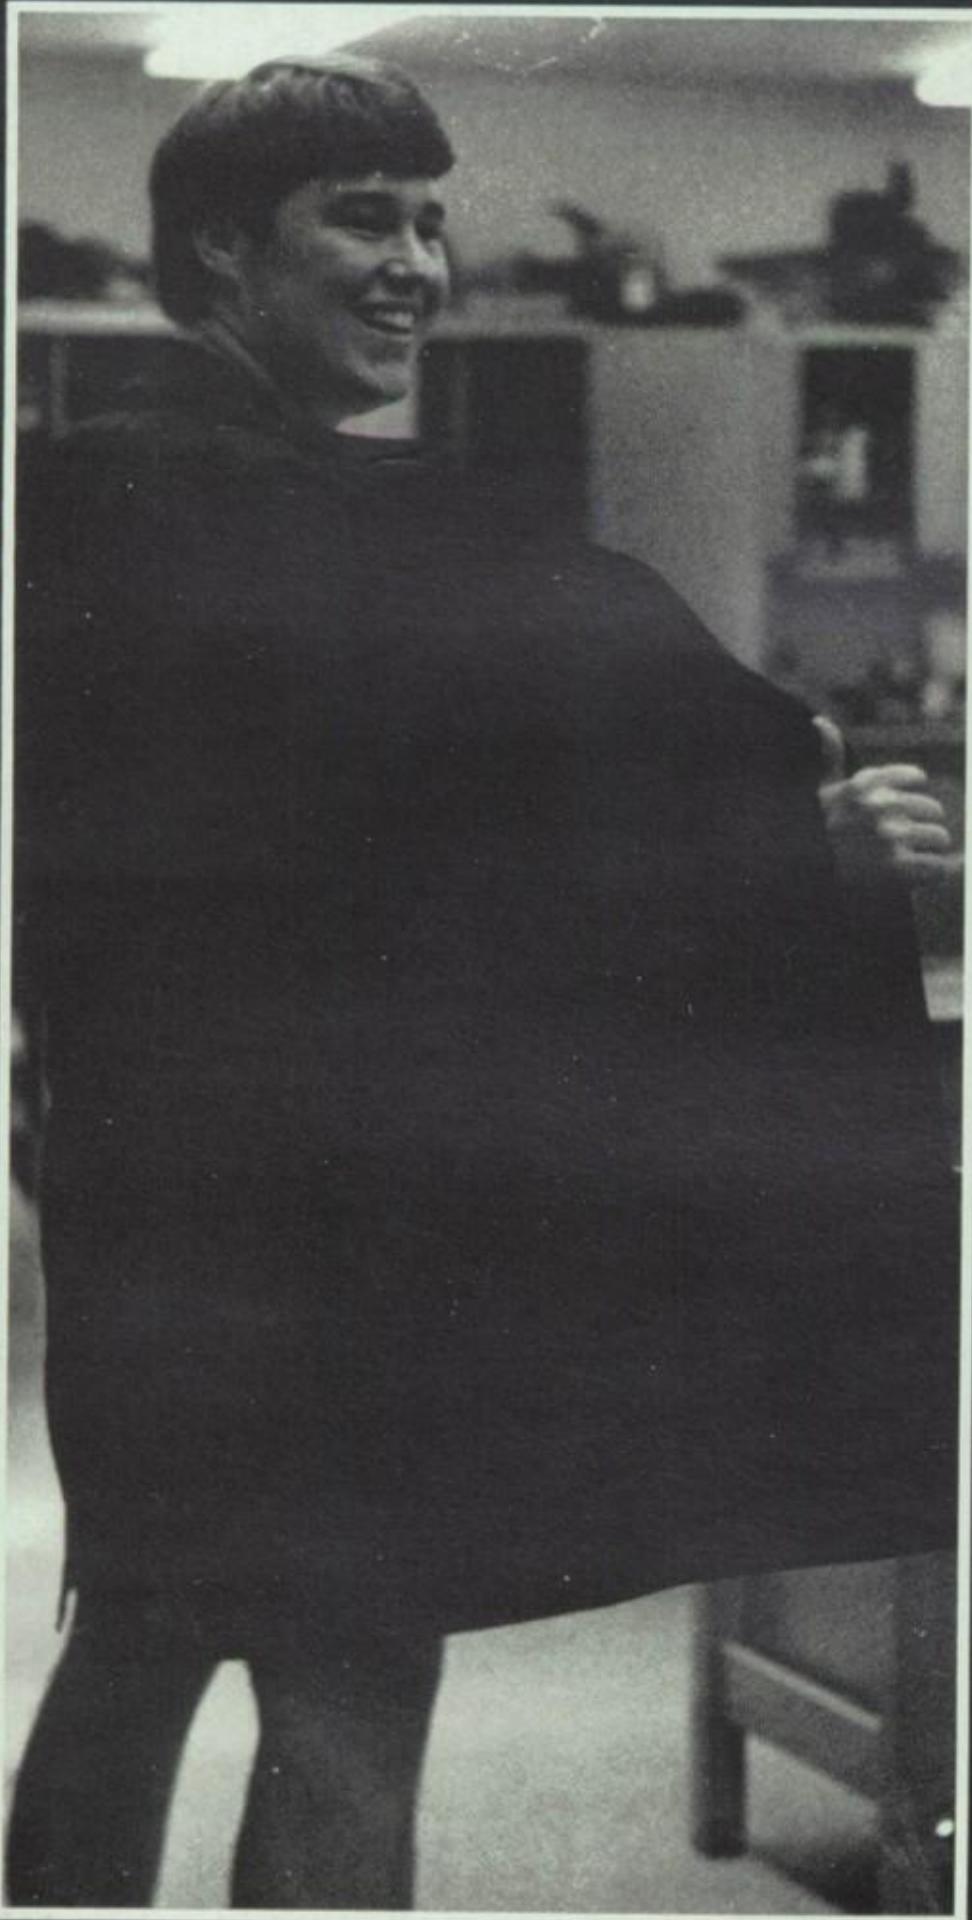

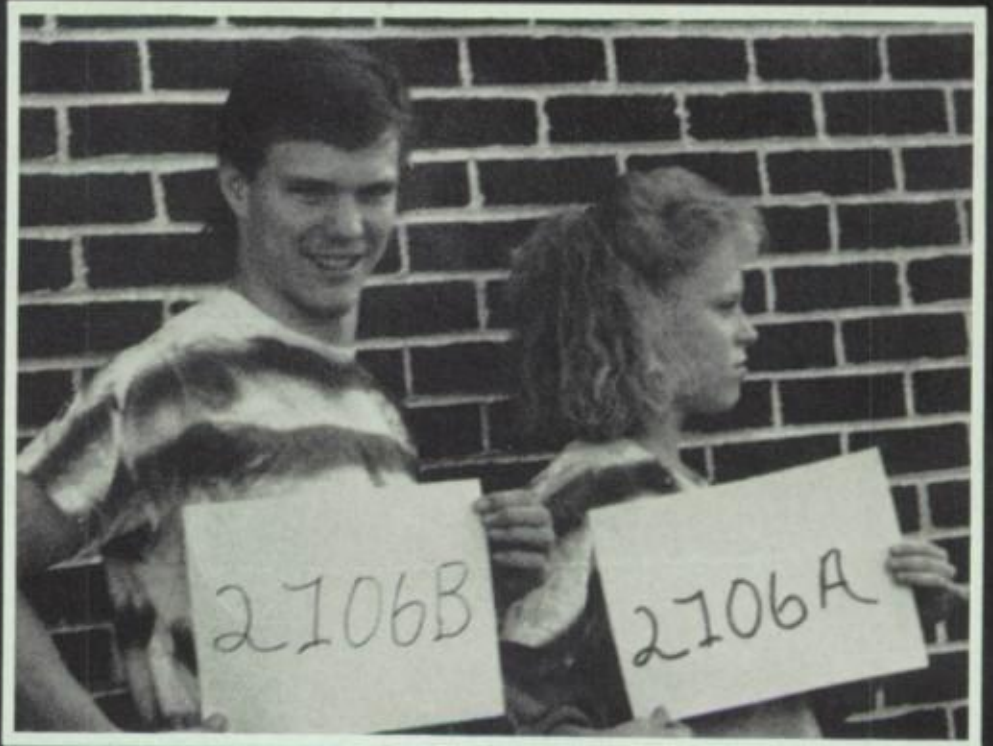

Activities outside the school consisted of a Goblin parade held downtown in which the merchants handed out candy to the children, the Rogers Youth Center held a carnival and haunted house from October 27-31, the police department also did their part by patrolling the neighborhoods on Halloween night and those caught speeding between 7:30 and 10:00 p.m. had their fines doubled.

Halloween or "St. Hallows Eve," is celebrated on October 31. Halloween is named because it is the eve of the festival of all saints. The homes are decorated with carved pumpkins, ghosts and goblins, and other Halloween monsters. Children go trick or treating while elderly people wait for them at the door to fill their bags with candy and other goodies.

Whether you went to a costume party, or just got together with old friends or made new ones Halloween 1986 will not soon be forgotten.

Fun Is Here

Mmm-mmm — Turkey and dressing, cranberry sauce, and pumpkin pies. Delicious! This is the best time of year for food critics. Everyone loves all the eats and goodies. This is also a time to join our families and give thanks for all that we have. Everyone has something to be thankful for: Parents, brothers and sisters, and even pets. Most people travel to see relatives, but even if you don't, you can still have lots of fun and food at home. So everyone has a great time.

Christmas is the time of giving and this year was no different. Parents, couples, children, and friends exchanged gifts. As Christmas comes around, Christmas trees and lights are put up to show the spirit of the season. Children wait by the fireplace for Santa Claus to come down the chimney. The hustle and bustle of shopping malls and stores let one know that Christmas is here. Many charities gather food for the needy. Many churches celebrate Christ's birth. IBC set up a live nativity about the birth — the death of Christ.

Out With the Old

New Year's started off with a lot of cold stuff lying all over the ground. It finally snowed, and everyone seemed to really love it, even though it was extremely cold and wet. Everyone had lots of fun. They all rang in the New Year with a bang.

All in all, these seasons were fairly good at RHS.

WANDERS TO ROGERS

The cold snow arrived at RHS for the 1986-87 school year and everyone was freezing. Rogers schools were released for a couple of days due to the weather. Although students had to face the cold, they kept moving on. The few snowfalls provided fun for everyone. It created the perfect atmosphere for throwing snowballs, sliding down hills and slipping on sidewalks. Many students at RHS had a hard time concentrating on their studies because of the falling snow outside.

Students bundled up to face the cold during class changes. Once inside the classroom, students began to get warmer and happier with the exception of those who were absent from school with the dreaded flu. Many students went to first hour with a cup of hot chocolate or coffee to keep their insides warm.

Valentine's Day Is . . .

... Showing You Care

Mountaineer sweethearts were the victims of a RHS policy change in 1987 which prohibited the delivery of flowers or gifts to the school on Valentine's Day. Instead many of the couples partook in romance by dining out, going to the Student Council's Valentine dance and indulging on heart shaped pizza and cookies. Mr. Green did receive a gift of balloons at school much to his embarrassment and the spectators delight.

Color Day Festivities Get Under Way

Color Day activities got underway on Friday, January 30. Students were not released from school early, but at 1:00, an assembly took place in which the Color Day Court was introduced to the student body. The queen was crowned before the game against the Northside Grizzlies. The night ended with a defeat, but the student body still stood behind the team with more spirit than ever. The Color Day dance was held after the game. The dance was sponsored by the Key Club.

"Baby Face . . . You've got the cutest little baby face." Most of us don't remember those childhood days. Those dirty diapers and terrible two's were enough for all of us to want to forget. But there were good things too. There were a lot of compliments about us, usually when we were asleep with a faithful friend, such as the "blankie," teddy, thumb, or when a caring person stuck a bottle in our mouths.

Although those days are long past, many memories remain in those who watched us grow into young adults. These pages are here to remind you and your friends how much you really have changed.

A Visit from "The Mountie"

'Twas the night before band contest, when all through the room
Not a noise could be heard, not a toot nor a boom;
The instruments were stored and locked up with care
In hopes that the horns, in the morn would be there;
The marchers, at home, were snug in their beds,
While visions of muddy fields danced in their heads;
Mr. Marlow, in his office, wearing a Mountie blue cap,
Had just settled his brain for a quick, restful nap;
When out on the practice fields there arose such a clatter,
Mr. Marlow went to check, of course taking his ladder;
Unlocking the chains, and into the cold, night air,
He ran with great speed to see what was happening there.
The moon on the field of the wet and cold ground,
Made Mr. Marlow pray that nothing would be found;
When, what to his woding eyes should appear,
But a royal blue sleigh, and eight band members there;
With a gray-bearded driver, so old and so bouncy.
He knew in a moment it must be "THE MOUNTIE."
More rapid than bulldogs his marchers they came,
And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name:
"Now, Kirby! now, Foster! now, Collins and Howrey!
On, Wallis! on, Phillip! on, Johnson and Guthrie!
To the top of the field! Kirby, don't you dare fall!
Now march away! March away! March away all!
Like sheet music, before the wind, was secure,
Are now blown away, no longer clean and pure.
So on to the field the marchers they flew, with a sleigh full of spirit, and "The Mountie," too.
And then, in a twinkling, he saw on the grass
The marchers holding on to their drums and their brass.
As he set up his ladder and was turning around,
Out of the sleigh, "The Mountie," leaped with a bound.
He was dressed all in blue, from his head to his tail,
With a tattered old hat and dirty toenails;
A package labeled "Dale Marlow" was placed ground,
In hopes that by morning it would quickly be found.
His eyes — black and beady, deep-set in his head;
His neck — long and sunburned, in multi-shades of red.
His droll little mouth, not a tooth did it hold,
And the beard on his chin was bristled, but bold;
An old corncob pipe he held tight in his lips,
And the smoke, it encircled his head like a whip;
His thin tanned face, and tail, wiry frame,
Would surely blow away if a slight breeze came.
The hillbilly smiled, then climbed into his sleigh,
Knowing the gift he had left would make the band director's day;
Mr. Marlow hurriedly crossed the field,
To see what "The Mountie's" bounty would yield;
Excited and nervous, he unwrapped it with a groan,
Then sighed in relief, when he found a new megaphone;
Mr. Marlow stood up to express his gratitude,
But "The Mountie" was at too high an altitude:
"The Mountie" exclaimed as he flew into the night,
"Good luck at band contest! Put up a good fight!"

This year the Marching Mountie Band's Auxiliaries combined, due to the lack of people able to twirl. The members of the team this year are Cindy Anderson, Jessica Kendall, Scott Nida, Paula Achey, Tricia Maidt, and Dana White.

The Majorettes this year are Honey Crafton, Carrie Holland, Amy Lawson, and Tamara Naccarato.

Jazz Band was a group of select band students who were interested in playing for the community as well as for school sponsored events. Jazz Band met everyday during sixth hour to rehearse songs from the early 40's to the late 60's.

Finding Harmony . . .

The orchestra members, sponsored by Mrs. Cox, played in many concerts over the past year, these included were the Open House held on October 27, a Regional clinic held in Fort Smith on November 8, and the Christmas Concert on December 8. They went to All State, Solo Ensemble held in March, and in May they played in the Bacc Contest.

Mrs. Cox was excited about working with a full orchestra and using band instruments for some of the concerts. The orchestra doubled in size over the past year.

Saying It With Music

Rogers' Choir had three different choirs again this year: Girls, Mixed and Select. These choirs were under new direction by Mrs. Hopkins.

The choirs met during fourth, fifth and seventh hours this year. They practiced jazz, country and contemporary music.

Choirs had six members go to region competition on November 15: Candi Rochelear, Angela Ray, Kelly Hahn, Graham Clarke, Jimmy Byler, and David Berry. Graham Clarke received first chair, which is the highest rank possible.

Choir members held four major concerts for the 1986-87 school year: Nov. 20; Dec. 18, the Christmas concert; March 9 with the junior high; and May 18, the spring concert. They also performed at the baccalaureate sermon on May 31.

Choir members also participated in many festivals and contests. An all-region clinic was held in Siloam Springs on Dec. 5 and 6. State tryouts were held in Little Rock on Jan. 31. There was an all-state clinic on Feb. 19 through the 21, in Pine Bluff. March 6 and 7, was the scheduled day for the regional festival at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville. On April 10, the state festival was held in Conway. Last but not least, there was a solo contest at the U of A on April 25.

All in all, the 1986-87 RHS Choir kept very busy. They worked hard for every bit of recognition they received.

Art is Artsy

Art I was a basic introductory level of art class. It stressed learning basic skills, becoming familiar with a variety of media, and understanding the elements of art to form the basis of good taste. Art II students built on the basic foundations learned in Art I. They learned more intermediate approaches to problem solving, perfecting skills, and adding imagination and creativity. Finally, Art III and IV students emphasized high level problem solving, individuality, creativity and career goals.

The sculpture class came up with their own ideas for their projects. Using wood, stone, clay, or glass, they got beautiful results. We're lucky to have a sculpture class because not many schools have one.

In ceramics, students are allowed to do a project of their choice using the various methods they have learned throughout the year. The three basic hand building methods they have learned are pinchpotting, coilpots, and slabpots. If there was enough time the students may have learned to use the potter's wheel.

Mrs. Brooks taught the Art I, Art II, and Art III, classes. Mrs. Kwarwinski taught ceramics, advanced ceramics, and sculpture. Mrs. Forrest taught crafts. Each one did an outstanding job.

Acting as a Team . . .

Thespians was an educational organization which aimed to establish and advance standards of excellence in all phases of the theatre arts and intelligent interest in theatre arts in the secondary schools.

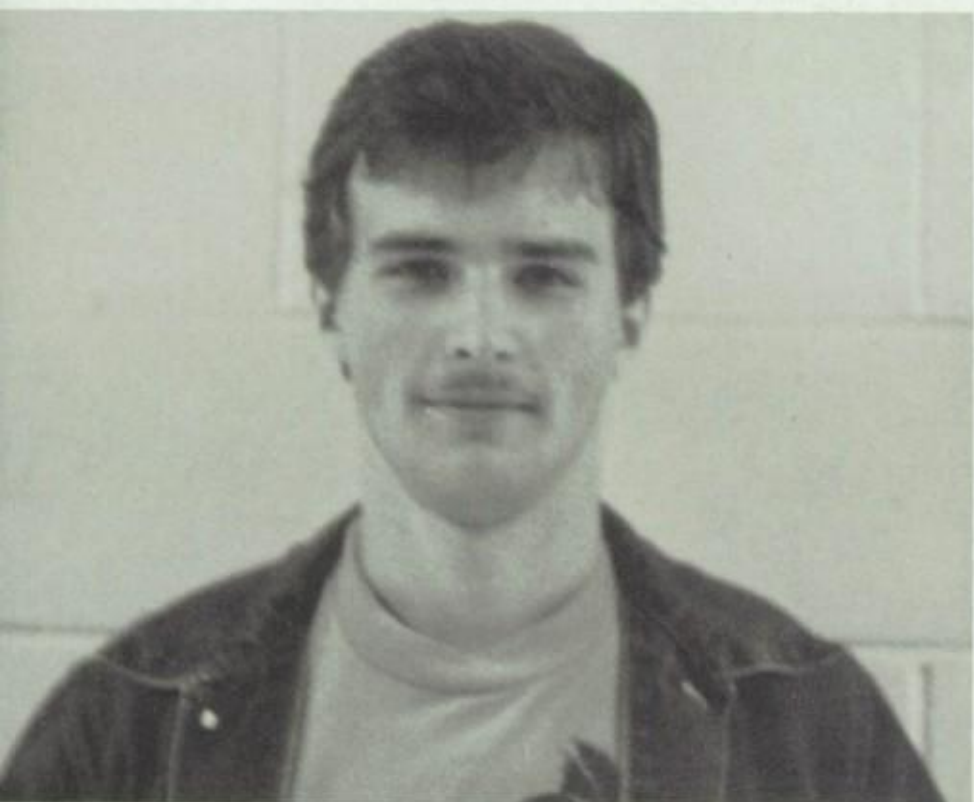

The focus of the club has always been on the student their achievement in the involvement and education in theatre arts.

Miss Stubbs is the sponsor of the Thespians. She has no definite plans as to whether or not they are going to nationals in Muncie, Indiana early this summer.

This group didn't do much over the last year, but they had fun doing what activities they did participate in.

News Makes the School Go 'Round

The Mountaineer Newspaper Staff studied newspaper procedures, journalism history, ethics, communications law, graphics and photography. They put out a newspaper in the Northwest

Arkansas Morning News, every other Thursday throughout the school year. The newspaper editor was Juli Paukune. The first semester copywriter was Craig Honchell and second semester was Kay Dickey. The newspaper of this past year were better than those of the 85-86 year. The stories were of much higher quality, more depth, more concise, better organized, and they went into more detail.

Trying to Meet Deadlines . . .

The 1986-87 yearbook staff worked hard together to complete this great yearbook on time. Writing stories, taking pictures, drawing layouts, and writing captions are just a few of the awesome adventures the staff had. Others include selling ads, selling yearbooks, and completing quads. Mr. Johnson, the advisor, had more time this year to get prepared and plan for the yearbook. Most of the yearbook staff devoted a lot of their time in the summer to plan for the book.

Four members of the Mountaineer yearbook staff won a 35 mm Canon Snappy for "best overall," for theme, style, layout, and copy at Taylor Publishing's Yearbook Camp, August 4-7, in Conway, AR. These members were seniors Bill Walker, Tammy Oakes, Ann Elliott, and Gardner Burton.

Working to Help Others

Key Club was an organization formed to provide the community with public services. The objects of the club were to develop initiative and leadership, provide experience in living and working together, serve the school and community, and prepare for useful citizenship.

Key Club had a very active 1986-87 school year. On Saturday, October 25, the members held a Halloween dance in the cafeteria. The proceeds made were given to the United Fund.

During National Key Club Week, members visited the Heritage Home and played bingo with them one afternoon. They continued visiting the elders during that week.

After the death of Tim Neatherly, Key Club held a bake sale at Wal-Mart. The proceeds made went to Tim's family to help provide needed items.

Early in the year, Key Club raised money at a Kiwanis wrestling match. This money was given to the Crisis Intervention Center to purchase armchairs. These armchairs are found throughout Rogers and contain the hotline numbers of the crisis centers.

In addition, Key Club distributed food baskets throughout the community of Rogers. The residents of the city donated canned goods which were given to Operational Blessing to help feed the poor.

Working for the Future

FBLA, Future Business Leaders of America, was a national organization for students who were taking business courses. Mrs. Cole, FBLA sponsor, and the eight officers conducted monthly meetings to discuss issues concerning business. The national FBLA organization has five regions; Arkansas is the Southern region. Arkansas has six districts; Rogers is in District

One.

On October 4, ten students from the high school attended the District One Fall Conference in Ft. Smith. The conference was held to get members enthused and to teach them how to better their district.

November 7-10, Mrs. Cole and ten students represented RHS in the Southern Region Conference in Little Rock. The purpose of the conference was to get members interested in their program, as well as create a sense of togetherness. They had guest speakers and worked to contribute to the Southern Region Conference. These conferences helped the FBLA members to achieve their goals for the year, 1987.

DECA Prepares Student for Careers

Marketing and Distributive Education at Rogers High School was a program which helped prepare students for careers in marketing and distribution. It encompassed businesses and occupations involved in the flow of goods from the producer to the consumer.

Students learned marketing functions in a variety of businesses including retail, wholesale and manufacturing firms; business and personal service establishments; financial institutions; recreational enterprises; restaurant; and transportation businesses.

The program provided an opportunity for schools and the business community to work together to educate students. The teacher-coordinator correlated classroom learning activities with practical on-the-job work experiences provided by business people in the community.

The program helped reduce turnover in businesses by referring students that tend to be reliable and enthusiastic because they are evaluated and receive school credit for their on-the-job performance.

Distributive Education promoted such Civic Consciousness projects as the United Fund. DECA has won the award for the most funds given by a high school organization for the past two years in a row.

Students of Distributive Education understand and appreciate the efforts of the business community and feel they should give something back. This is DECA's way of saying "Thank you Rogers," for supporting us in so many ways.

The major activities of the DECA program included sponsoring an Employers' Appreciation Banquet, participating in the State Convention held in Hot Springs on March 8 and 9, and the National Convention held in New Orleans, LA, on April 30 thru May 3. The coordinator for the Distributive Education program was Nick Nicholas.

Training for the Future

The Junior Executive Training class, JET, at Rogers High School is a class of juniors and seniors who wish to continue their education in the field of management upon graduation.

JET students receive either one or two hours of credit for the year in the course depending upon the number of class periods the student occupies in the course. Class topics include marketing, advertising, production and personnel management, employee relations, finance, research and development, and government regulation of business.

Students participate in the Executive Business Game sponsored by Arkansas Power and Light Company and the Arkansas State Department of Business Education. The Executive Business Game is a unique program which gives high school students a chance to manage their own company. The program combines everyday business decisions with computer technology to give students a rare "real world" look at the free enterprise system. The students compete with other Arkansas business students based upon the team's game decisions, written and oral presentation to imaginary stockholders.

JET students are required to attend Chamber of Commerce, School Board, and City Council meetings during the year to acquaint themselves with community leadership through public administration.

Students are voting members of the Education, Tourism, Ambassadorship, Agriculture, Community Arts and Development, Community Recognition, and CORPS committees of the Rogers Chamber of Commerce.

JET students are screened and selected by sponsor Tom Woodruff.

COE OFFICERS: Lisa Kitterman, president; Debbie Walter, vice-president; Janet Hodge, secretary; Dawn Arnold, treasurer; Nerissa Cargile, historian; and Michele Milholen, parliamentarian.

Working Towards Success . . .

Cooperative Office Education is a work-training program for high school seniors who are preparing for full-time employment in office occupations.

It is the "Capstone" of the business education program where the knowledge, skills, and techniques learned separately are brought together and applied to an actual office job.

This program takes the school into the community and brings the community into the school.

The COE division of Rogers High School, headed by Mrs. Sally Williams, has placed 21 students in office jobs in the Rogers area this past school year. These students attend school part-time and work part-time.

The following students were chosen as officers for the past year by other members of the club: Lisa Kitterman, President; Debbie Walters, Vice President; Janet Hodge, Secretary; Dawn Arnold, Treasurer; Susan Tabor, Reporter; Nerissa Cargile, Historian; Michelle Milholen, Parliamentarian; and Mrs. Sally Williams, Coordinator.

GCE

Row 1 — Kathy Morrison, Lynn Fox, Lori Sargent, Debbie Parmele, Denise Chambers, Susan Heiney, and Retta Morris. Row 2 — Deanna Mathews, Laura Drake, Bobye Barenberg, Laura Braswell, Kevin Isom, Mike Hale, Teresa Hopping, Paula Campbell, and Jason Downing. Row 3 — Kari Sheldon, Laura Lea, Michelle Beaver, Becky Waldon, Nichole White, Cathy Smith, Shannon Martfeld, Christie McCarthy, and Shawn Bridie. Row 4 — Stephanie Knight, Jennifer Martin, Gloria Lam, Rick Bough, Kyle Seidel, Steve Marchant, and Mike McDaniel. GCE OFFICERS: Laura Braswell, Nichole White, Michelle Beaver, Becky Waldon, Kari Sheldon, and Kevin Isom.

The GCE (General Cooperative Education Club) was a program that is a combination of various programs. It had students doing all kinds of work and allowed any student to work, so it ranks over a very general area.

The students in the GCE program got a credit for their job, and they got credit for attending class. The students work at least fifteen hours a week and get paid for their work. The program was open to both male and female. Mr. Green is the sponsor.

The main purpose of the GCE program was to help students find a job that they might consider for their career. The program designed to meet the needs of the college bound, as well as, students that don't plan to attend college.

The GCE program here bought five children toys for Christmas; this was sponsored by the Salvation Army. They also had an Employer Appreciation Banquet in April. They also had a state convention held in April at the Royelle Vista in Hot Springs which only a few of the students here at RHS attended.

Developing Individualism

The purpose of Interact is to provide an opportunity for young people to work together in a world fellowship that is dedicated to service and international understanding. The goals of the program were not noteworthy: to recognize and develop constructive leadership and personal integrity; to encourage and practice thoughtfulness and helpfulness to others; to create an awareness of the importance of home and family; to build respect for the right of others, based on recognition of the worth of each individual; to emphasize acceptance of individual responsibility at basis of personal success, community improvement, in group achievement; to recognize the dignity and value of all useful occupations as opportunities to serve society to provide opportunities for increasing knowledge and understanding community, national, and world affairs; and to open the avenues of personal and group act in leading to the advancement of international understanding and goodwill toward all peoples.

Interact club projects and activities include preparing food baskets for Our Farm, a home in Rogers for the neglected and parentless children; sponsoring a "Student Guest of the Month" whereby a high school senior is selected to attend the Rogers Rotary Club's luncheon on Tuesday of the month and then on the student's last Tuesday of the month he or she gives a short talk to the Rotarians; Student Business Day is when a student is given an opportunity to spend a day with a Rotarian at his place of work with the purpose of observing first hand management skills of a professional businessman in a selected career; field trip to the Wal-Mart distribution center, and attending the District 611 Rotary Conference each year in the spring. Rogers High School business teacher and Rotarian Tom Woodruff serves as the liaison.

A group of Rogers High School students started a new organization this year geared towards helping fellow students in everyday life. These "peer counselors" wish to bring a more caring atmosphere to the school by assisting students and listening to their various problems.

During the summer, these students attended six five hour classes at the Crisis Center in Springdale. These classes were aimed at helping the students learn to communicate better with their peers. The group planned many activities throughout the year and helped to spread the program to other schools.

Students Encourage Learning

Any high school student who was a library assistant or who showed an interest could have joined the club.

The club's purpose was to increase pupil interest and participation in the areas of educational communication and library science, to create and support better media service, to promote friendship and cooperation among student media assistants, and to attract well-qualified students for assistants and to interest them in the media as a lifetime skill or profession.

The RHS Media Club is affiliated with the District XI group of Arkansas Student Librarians Association.

The following students were elected as officers for the past school year: Amy Reynolds, President; Heidi Reynolds, Vice President; Leslie Collins, Corresponding Secretary; Laura Burks, Recreational Secretary; Amy Molz, Treasurer; Wendy Reynolds, Historian; Julie Vandever, Parliamentarian; and Miss Gordon, sponsor.

Office Aids

Office aids really do serve a purpose. They pick up attendance cards used in the computer, run various errands for the busy office faculty and make announcements to help keep the school up to date. These students are not given credit for their help, but things would be hectic without them.

Machine Shop VICA

This year on November 14 and 15, the officers attended a convention in Hot Springs. The convention dealt with improving leadership skills. In the spring, they went to Little Rock for state competition. They have finished first place four times out of the seven years they have gone. Their sponsor was Mr. Engler.

Industrial Technology VICA

Industrial Technology have done very well in the House Wiring Contest in the past. They have placed first, the past seven years, and placed seventh in the nationals in 1986. President Michael Rhew went to state competitions last year and this year. The sponsor was Mr. Lufler.

Auto Mechanics VICA

Students in Auto Mechanics learned to work on cars given to the school. They competed in a local competition and the winners moved on to the state competition called the Plymouth AAA Trouble Shooting Contest. They have placed first five times out of the past seven. They ranked eighth in the nation in 1984 and seventh in 1986. Their sponsor was Mr. Rogers.

The officers went to a leadership training program on November 14 and 15 in Hot Springs.

Students Learn Fundamentals of Farming

This year was a very good year for the forty-seven members of Future Farmers of America.

The activities they participated in were a leadership camp, a livestock show, the Benton County fair, a Fort Smith judging contest, a banquet and the National Convention.

Five of the six officers went to leadership camp. "We started off as a group of goof-offs, but when we left we were a closer group of goof-offs," said Christie Conklin.

At the Benton County fair, FFA set up a booth along with other schools from the area. Rogers received first place overall.

Many of the FFA members attended the Fort Smith judging contest. The following students attended: in Livestock Brad Fortner, Robert Duncan, Mark Barnet, Jeff Neil, Dwayne Goodnight and Wilbur Sauerbry; in dairy cattle Sam

Campbell, Robert Baugh and Christie Conklin; in poultry Charles Jones, Dennis Day and Robbie Taylor; in horticulture Rachel Laughter and Kirby Ramsey; in crops William Sutton and in tractor driving Mike Shook. Mike Shook proudly brought home a third place in tractor driving.

Rogers held a livestock on August 2. There was very good participation in this event.

FFA held a banquet in which eighty-two people showed up. Mr. Sweeney said it was an overall success. Lonnie Webb, from Lincoln, was the guest speaker. Christie Conklin was the student speaker. Twenty-three greenhands (first year) received awards they were Christy Feilds, William Sutton, Shelly Threat, Dusty Jennings, Michelle Scott, Sherrie Kaiser, Dwayne Goodnight, Wilbur Sauerbry, Scott Patton, Ray Partain, Jeff Neil, Brad Fortner, Rachelle Sisk, Michael Maloney, Steven Gear, Angela Peterson, Paul Russel, Mike Maleod, Joe Bill Morris, Darrell Pointer, Jenny Duffy, Robert Nida and Bart Sample.

Mr. Highfill, Dwayne Goodnight, William Sutton, Joe Bill Morris, Michelle Scott and Christie Feilds went to National Convention in Kansas City, Missouri.

At the National Convention, Charles Duren received one of the highest awards given, the National Farmer's Degree.

Between the judging, banquet, and etc., FFA members hauled hay for the needy farmers of North and South Dakota. They also had a hay ride to relieve the tension.

Overall, the Rogers chapter of FFA was very interested and helpful this year.

Preparing for the Future . . .

The Future Homemakers of America's membership consisted of any student currently enrolled in a home economics class or one who had had some economics previously.

FHA raised over five hundred dollars for the Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock this past year. Because this chapter was one of the top ten FHA contributors, they received a silk banner at the FHA State Convention in Little Rock.

Members attended a FHA District II meeting at Ramay Junior High School in Fayetteville. The theme for the meeting was "Without 'You' There Is No 'Us'." At this meeting every chapter in attendance designed an ice cream cone of their favorite flavors and told how it represented them.

The independent living class made

Christmas stocking and delivered them to a nursing home in the area. The child development class did a project with the latch-key kids in elementary schools. The class went to second grade classes and helped kids understand what to do and what not to do while home alone. They used the Care Bear theme and handed out coloring books on the subject.

Experiencing Other Cultures . . .

This year the Foreign Language Club had over 150 members.

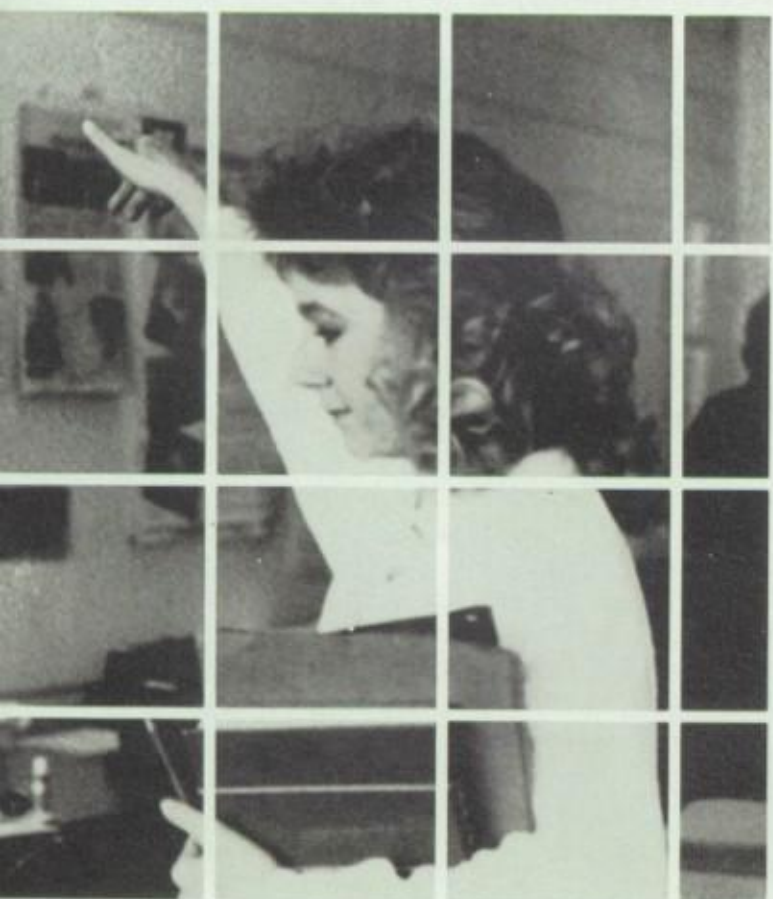

They took many trips this last past year. One interesting one was to Tulsa where they visited the Spanish Ballet and got a chance to experience foods other than American.

The club was successful in achieving many of their goals for the year. Their major goal was to introduce kids from other countries to America by participating in many activities that would let them see how it is here and what it is like to live here if you are from another country. They taught them how to communicate in other languages.

Ranging From Honduras to Japan

RHS had ten foreign exchange students for its 1986-87 school year. Their interests and opinions are observed below.

Luniela Mazier, 17, plans to go to college to study psychology after her RHS school year. She would like to become a professional psychologist and teach languages. She likes the people and the school system here. She especially likes to play tennis, volleyball, and other women's sports. Her favorite food is pizza.

Maria Martinez, 17, would like to go to college and become an English teacher after her RHS school year. She says the United State's schools are a social event as well as as experience; where as in Spain, the learning is in school and the social events are held elsewhere. She likes to waterski, windsurf, and play volleyball.

Wolfram Hassel, 17, will attend high school for two years upon returning to West Germany. After completing high school, he will go on to college. His future plans are to become a traveling businessman. He thinks that the people here are more religious and more open. He likes the school system here because he can practice more sports. He especially likes to play table tennis and chess.

Hanne Rudberg, 16, will go to business school after her RHS school year. She would like to be a travel agent. Her most difficult hobby here is writing letters to all her friends and relatives. She loves all sports. She likes the people here because they are so helpful. She also likes the driver's license system because it is cheaper here than it is in Norway.

Jasper Sturup, 17, is going to study advertising after his RHS school year. He will then go to art school. His future goal is to be a commercial artist. He thinks the people here have a different sense of humor, but they are friendly. Jasper likes the climate here and the driver's license system. His hobbies include soccer, swimming, and art.

Jens Axelson, 18, will continue high school after returning to Sweden. He would like to join the Army and study either medicine or archeology. He thinks that the people here are more open, and the schools are different. He likes to play golf, tennis, and practice karate.

Esa Kaitila, 17, will attend high school for two years upon returning to Finland. After graduation, he wants to join the Army and possibly study at a university. He thinks the people here have a good sense of humor and that they are friendly. He likes the school system and climate here. His hobbies are tae kwon do, soccer, art, and snowskiing.

Arthit (Tee) Tanjapatku, 17, has one year of high school after returning to Thailand. Upon graduation, he would like to attend a university and become a doctor. His future plans include being rich and traveling around the world. He says that the people here are taller, more active, and very friendly. He enjoys music, reading, and badminton.

Mito Shirake, 17 will study psychology in a Japanese college after her RHS school year. Her future plans include getting married, having three children, and owning a pretty house. She likes the driver's license and the school system here. She doesn't like homework, tests, and heavy textbooks. Her hobbies are music, dancing, and shopping. Her favorite food is pizza.

Toshimi Yamamura, 17, is also from Japan. When he returns home, he will finish high school and later attend college. he would like to become an engineer. His hobbies are listening to music and reading Japanese books. He says the biggest difference here is the language; however, he likes everything in America. His favorite food is fish.

Christians in Action

CIA, Christians in Action, was an organization of students who wanted to make a stand for Jesus Christ on the Rogers High School campus. "It consists of students from all types of denominations, but they all have a common denominator, a relationship with Jesus!", said Lori Martin. They met every Wednesday before school to have devotions by guest speakers, games and Christian fellowship. This year they participated in the Homecoming Parade, had picnics and several other activities.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

The Rogers High School Chapter of Fellowship of Christian Athletes was made up of young men and women athletes. These athletes competed in a variety of sports and shared life and faith in "huddle" discussions discover who Jesus Christ was and how to best live out His love and serve the lifestyle in the athletic community. This process of "evangelism through fellowship" centered on the person of Jesus Christ, the Bible, and the church. FCA was a fellowship through which ordinary individuals, with the common bond of sports, helped each other become the kind of people God intended them to be.

FCA members were very active during the 1986-87 school year. At the beginning of the year, FCA had a swimming party to get things started. In September, a spaghetti supper was held with the members and their parents to get everyone enthused about the upcoming year. In December, FCA members went Christmas caroling to different places in the Rogers area, including the Reagan house to see their Christmas tree. They also collected canned foods, fruits, and goodies for Christmas baskets.

FCA members also held fund raisers to help raise money for camp: raking leaves, a car wash, and a jogathon. During the summer some FCA members went to conference in North Carolina.

the club . . .

1987 was a year for new beginnings, and the 'REACH' club was one of them. The requirements for REACH members included having a 3.0 grade average, have some outstanding skill or talent, and have the ability to be creative. Activities the club participated in were the Homecoming Parade, the Christmas Parade, and 17 members attended the Washington D.C. Close Up trip. REACH club was also involved with the Arkansas Model United Nations and Odyssey of the Mind.

Furthermore, REACH has established a plan that will help fund projects for other school clubs.

RHS Delegates . . .

On December 5 and 6, the RHS Delegations attended the 21st Annual Model United Nations in Conway, Arkansas.

There were 600 to 700 students from five other states in attendance. Many of the students were in college and few represented high schools. Rogers took fifty-six students and represented nine countries: Italy, Denmark, Iraq, Venezuela, Australia, Canada, Spain, West Germany and Bulgaria. They came back with fourth place.

RHS had five out of six of the opening statements, which is considered an honor. The delegations from Bulgaria and Australia received special recognition, and all were recognized for being the best over all in assembly.

Sponsors for the trip were Lana Eckard, Amy Fike and Marilyn Annen. The group left on December 4 at 5 o'clock from RHS taking sixty-six people, including parents, onto two school buses. "We went over and knocked them dead," said Mrs. Eckard.

The U.N. delegation was held at the University of Central Arkansas.

The delegation requested a caucus. Every student was on one committee. This year the committees were Political Security, the Ad Hoc Committee on International Terrorism, and Legal, Social, Humanitarian, and Cultural. After the caucus, one student from each committee stood up and presented three original solutions to the problem.

After the delegation, they had a celebration dinner at Cagle's Mill restaurant in Russellville. Because of their outstanding behavior, they were invited back. Friday night there was a dance held for the students and a pool party at 1:00 A.M.

Mrs. Eckard said that it was a super trip and that she was very proud of them.

Students Score Highly in Academics

Hi-Q was an academic quiz competition based on a student's general scholastic knowledge. The questions required knowledge that the students had acquired at school or elsewhere. The 1986-87 RHS Scott Hi-Q coach was Mrs. Neaville.

This year's Hi-Q reference list consisted of thirteen categories: current events, American government, American history, art history, biology, American literature, literature-team choice, chemistry and physics, mathematics, Shakespeare, sports, vocabulary, and world history.

Hi-Q members met three times a week — Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. With the help of Mrs. Neaville, Mrs. Annen, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Granderson, Hi-Q members were able to receive extra emphasis on main subjects.

There were two series this season. The first series ran for eight weeks, beginning January 13, 1987. Each school competed in three contests. The final scores of each team were the cumulative points earned by that team in the three programs in which it competed.

The Series II championship contests consisted of three programs in the contestants were the three teams with the highest cumulative scores in Series I.

Competing team members were Seniors Janet Hodge, Rocky Presley, Jeff Smith, and Robert Pendley, and Juniors Gail Hiatt, Wendi Bullington, Tamara Naccarato, and Kevin Clements. Schools that participated in the 1986-87 season were Bentonville, Decatur, Elkins, Fayetteville, Gentry, Gravette, Huntsville, Lincoln, Pea Ridge, Prairie Grove, Rogers, Shiloh Christian, Siloam Springs, Springdale, and West Fork.

Student Council

Student Council Succeeds in Raising Spirit.

Student Council representatives were elected from each class at Rogers High School. Their purpose was to be the voice of the students. To make the Student Council work for the students, the cooperation of the students, teachers, and administration was needed and appreciated. Their enthusiastic sponsors for the past year were Mr.

Graham and Mrs. Wingert.

The Student Council was very active during the 1986-87 school year. During Homecoming, they promoted "spirit week", selling "Celebration '86" t-shirts, and sponsoring the Homecoming Dance. They also participated in the annual blood drive and worked hard to decorate the student commons area.

They took part in helping contribute to the Tim Neatherry fund by organizing a faculty-student basketball game to promote donations.

Student Council officers were Darin Brust, president; Jennifer Wolfe, vice-president; Bobye Barenburg, secretary; and Honey Crafton, treasurer.

Students Make the Grade

The National Honor Society was an academic club with eighty-nine members. All members had to have a 3.5 grade average. They were evaluated by their teachers on a scale one to four on leadership, character, and service. NHS members' grades were checked every nine weeks.

This year the members of NHS went to the University of Tulsa where they were shown the campus and were allowed to "sit-in" on a college class. They were also served lunch with the university students. In addition, the National Honor Society built a float for the Homecoming parade.

The 1986-87 RHS cheerleading squads were sponsored by Mrs. Mooney. They supported the football and basketball players by attending all their games.

During the summer, the varsity cheerleaders attended a National Cheerleading Association camp in Cassville, MO. There they received second place. Kelly Westmoreland was honored by being named All-Star Cheerleader.

The junior varsity cheerleaders also attended a NCA camp which was held at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville.

In addition to camp, the squads met during the summer for practice sessions. At these sessions, the varsity cheerleaders taught the junior varsity cheerleaders the rules of the road. While in school, they had vigorous practice sessions during seventh hour.

All in all, the RHS cheerleading squads kept the players and the student body spirited throughout the year.

DRILL TEAM

The 1986-87 Mountie Royals had been practicing since early last summer when they attended camp and two weeks before school began.

The Mountie Royals had great pride in their routines, and we were able to see that in each performance. They showed us great encouragement and gave us much spirit. The Mountie Royals became more than just a drill team they became the way we showed our Mountie spirit.

Mrs. Anne Bland was the sponsor this year, and has been since the Mountie Royals began.

Mounties show teamwork

The Rogers Mounties didn't do very well this year in the way of wins, but they were very hardworking, ambitious players and provided good leadership for the underclassmen.

"The Mounties had a very hard schedule this past season," says Coach Bond. All the opposing teams were ranked very high in the district, with the exception of a few.

Even through the hard times, the Mounties still managed to show their spirit and good sportsmanship. The future for the Mounties is looking good. The junior varsity team ended the season undefeated, and hopes to get more muscle power over the summer.

The class of '87 wish the next year senior Mounties luck, and even though the 86-87 football team didn't do so great, we all know that their excellent leadership and inspiration will stick with the 1987-88 varsity football team.

Mountainers Work Hard in '86-'87 Basketball Season

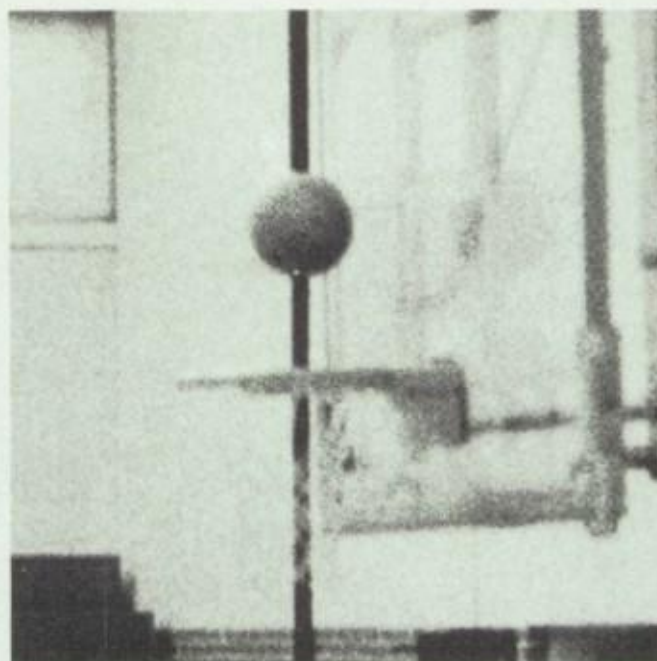

The 1986-87 basketball team was full of "hardworking young men who worked hard for the success of the Rogers Mountie Basketball Team," said Coach Ken Hopper. He also stated "In spite of problems and injuries, the team as a whole played with great intensity." The Mounties finished second in both the Rogers Tyson's Invitational and the McDonald County Classic tournaments.

Great recognition goes to Seniors Ken Hyde, Mike Howrey, David Stitt, Gary Kearney, and Rich Bullington who showed good leadership and support for the younger members of the team and for giving the Rogers Mounties a respectable name. Juniors Tom Olsen and Monte Moore and Sophomore Joe Hardin also deserve recognition and will be great leaders in the success of the 1987-88 Mountie Basketball Team.

Smokin' Up the Court

This was a fine year for the Lady Mounties. They participated in three main tournaments. These included the Tyson Invitational, the McDonald's Classic and the Kickapoo Invitational. They were first in the Tyson Invitational, second in the McDonald Classic and third in the Kickapoo Invitational.

The coaches were Coach Brenda Alexander and Coach Cindra Abernathy. Coach Alexander had been assistant coach for four years and head coach for one year at RHS. This was Coach Abernathy's first year coaching.

All the players contributed their skills in each game. The most improved girls were Angie Kennan, Michelle Rogers and Paula Cray.

The Lady Mounties really did smoke up the court.

Volleyball Sets the Pace

Throughout the volleyball season, the girls grew emotionally and physically as they worked to become a better team. This year the team was conference runner-up and represented Rogers at State. They were 6-6 for the season.

Varsity players were Angie Kennan, Denise Chambers, Page Bevington, Sukey Millspaugh, Terisa Liberty, Laura Braswell, and Michelle Rogers. Junior varsity players were Kris Bliss, Dawn Steinman, Carrie Jones, Kim Kirkland, Maria Martinez, Krista Dome, and Ramona Trahan.

These girls were coached for the first year by Cindra Abernathy. Volleyball managers were Erin Price, Casey Preston and Cindy Honchell.

Soccer Team Enjoys Success

The 1986 fall soccer season was a successful one for the Rogers Mounties. They finished second in the Northwest Arkansas High School Soccer League. Since its conception, the Mounties have finished either first or second each season, including an impressive undefeated campaign last fall.

This year's team featured a fine mixture of both upper classmen and sophomores. Leading one of the league's most dominating defenses were Seniors Billy Huntington, Kenny Fizer, and Jeff Steele — along with second year letterman Brad Conley. Spearheading the offensive attack were Seniors Mike Howrey and Kevin Kreeger — as well as an explosive trio of juniors: Sammy Welborn, Tommy Lastovica, and Matt Miller. In addition, the arrival of foreign exchange students Esa Kaitila and Jasper Sturup had a noticeable impact on the level of ball control and teamwork in the midfield.

A special note must be added to recognize an outstanding groups of quality sophomore players. Through dedication and hard work, they earned their way onto the varsity playing field. This year's sophomores not only provided strong bench support, but also played admirably in key starting positions. Within them is the promise of more good seasons to come.

Outrunning Their Opponents

The 1986-87 Women's Cross-Country Team showed much effort this season. Thanks to their skills and speed, they brought home a second place finish in the State meet, losing by only two points. At the Holiday Island and John Brown University meets, the team placed third, only to place second in the Tallequah and Fayetteville meets.

The girls met every morning before school for training. In addition, they ran during seventh period and sometimes after school.

Huffin' It

... The 1986-87 Rogers Tennis Team practiced five days a week for an hour and a half a day. However, some practiced six days a week for two or three hours. The tennis matches started in mid-March and went through mid-May. Conference matches were more of an individual event, but these winners continued on to state competitions. Shawn Young replied before the matches, "I am looking for someone to go to state this year."

The tennis teams were coached this year by Randall Backus. The members of the men's team were Shawn Young, Rocky Presley, Daniel Reznicek, Steve Stanberry, Aaron Vancil, Mike Hudson, Jeff Soderquist, Matt Kendall, David Denman, Chris Murbito and Wolfram Hassel. The members of the women's team were Thuy Pham, Carissa Vancil, Mito Shiraki, Maria Martinez, Tammy Oakes, Angie Moore, Nichole White, Michelle White, Martha Spivey, Kelli Russell and Michelle Sellers.

Mounties Swim to Action

This year's Mountie Swim Team was the most successful ever. Mountie swimmers trained hard throughout the season at Summerhill's swimming pool. The coaches, Jackie and Jeff Spencer, were very satisfied with the season's results. The team also received a great deal of help from Jerry Spencer who was the third best 50 yard free style swimmer in the world. He helped coach the team with his sister, Jackie, and his brother, Jeff.

High school swimmers trained for seven and a half hours every other week. For the weeks in between, they trained for five and a half hours. The team was also aided in the fact that there were few absences. Team spirit was absolutely great when the other teams had lost theirs. Outstanding swimmers were Junior Scott Virden, who did excellent in many competitions, and Sophomores Bobby Fruland and Brian Fett, who also did very well in competitions. All and all, this year's swim team had an excellent combination of sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

Success of Mountie Golfers

The 1987 Rogers Golf Team had several returning players from last year that were instrumental to the '87 success. Returning lettermen included Seniors Darren Gaffney and Brad Lepp. Swedish foreign exchange student Jens Axelson was counted on for help. Sophomore Jack Myers also held promise for success.

The Mountie team finished second in conference and has qualified for the state tournament for the past seven years.

Darren Gaffney led the Mounties last year with a 38.7 stroke average for his hole matches. Because the team lost three of its top five players to graduation last year, this year's squad had a challenge set before them.

David Beeman

David Beeman is a sixteen year old Junior, born August 29th, 1970 in Mobile, Alabama. His favorite teacher is Mrs. King because "She treats us like adults and we can talk to her." David's favorite class is Advanced Math, "All my friends are there — like Alf Baker." His school activities include Hi-Q, Key Club, REACH, Model United Nations, and the CLOSE-UP-Washington Program.

When asked why go to Washington, D.C.? David replied, "It's going to be awesome to visit the Smithsonian and to see how the Government works." David said he plans to "ask Government officials why they are doing so much illogical, inefficient stuff." He also plans to tell the individuals he contacts his beliefs and the role the government should be playing.

David loves animals, fast cars, children (read that small teen-aged girls), trips, strange friends, and looking for his identity. "Of course, just like the Skin Horse told the Rabbit when they were both in the toy box, It doesn't happen all at once. You become. It takes a long time. That's why it doesn't happen to people who break easily, or have sharp edges, or who have to be carefully kept. Generally, by the time you are REAL, most of your hair has been loved off, and your eyes drop out and you get loose in the joints and very shabby. But these things don't matter at all, because once you are REAL you can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand."

David admires most, "John Maunsh, who works at The Tale of the Trout, because he comes from the Far Side." David's future plans include, "To become rich and famous so I don't have to scrounge — to attend L.S.U., Mississippi State University, or somewhere other than the University of Arkansas because it's too close to my home to party — and to trade my Mustang II to my dad for his Porsche 911SC."

Tricia Huckreide

Tricia Huckreide was born in Joplin, Missouri on November 6, 1970. She has lived in Rogers since she was nine years old. Her favorite hobbies are softball and swimming in the summer.

Tricia's main interest is sports. At RHS, she is a member of the basketball, cross-country and track teams. But right now her main interest is basketball as she replied, "Basketball is my life."

Her favorite class is English her favorite subject is Biology "because a lot of my friends are in there" her goals were to go to college and become a basketball coach," as she said.

Her classmates say that she is a real close and dear friend. "We don't know what we would do without her!"

Tim
 1971-1986

You were a friend,
 That we should have loved,
 Cherished, honored, and held above.
 Some of us picked on you,
 Some called you names,
 But really deep down,
 You were just the same.
 We have felt pain,
 And we have felt disgust,
 But only because you left us.
 So like we said above,
 You "Tim" are one,
 That we all should have loved!

Lee Lummus

Timothy Scott Neatherry, 15, a student of Rogers High School, died October 29 in a motorcycle accident.

Born in Des Moines, Iowa on January 15, 1971, he and his family moved to the Rogers area in September 1978.

He attended school at Lowell Elementary, Elmwood Junior High, and RHS. At the high school he was an "A/B" student.

In junior high, he played football his eighth and ninth grade years. His two greatest joys were riding motorcycles and chasing girls, according to his mother Haroldine Neatherry.

Over the summer, he worked at Shoney's Restaurant and Monte Ne Inn. His parents Robert and Haroldine described Tim as being "a good all around kid because he helped people out whenever possible."

The funeral was held at Rollins Funeral Home on Nov. 1, with 230 people in attendance and Bob Hager officiating. His burial was in Des Moines.

The pallbearers included Charles Bagwell, Tim Bennet, Terry Birdcreek, Bobby Groh, Wally Groh, David Hastings, Tommy Leverich, Bobby Moltz, Jeff Neil, Heath Rogers, and Matt Watson.

A fund was established by RHS student to raise money for the tombstone. About 650 dollars were raised according to Dr. King.

ADMINISTRATION

... the heart of the school system.

The administration adopted many new school regulations this year. Some of these included the tardy and smoking policies. Students were allowed only three tardies per semester. The first unexcused tardy was a warning by the teacher to the student. In the second and subsequent tardies, the student was sent to the appropriate vice-principal.

Smoking and possession of tobacco or tobacco products were prohibited on school premises. Abuse or non compliance resulted in detention hall, parent notification, counselor reference, suspension, or expulsion.

These policies were discussed the previous summer. The administration continues to work towards improvement in the Rogers Public Schools — "Unite To Invite Learning." The Rogers School Board meetings were held on the second Tuesday of each month at the School Administration Building on South Fifth Street in Rogers.

Credit also needs to be given to the rest of the RHS office staff:

Betty Lynn Reagan and Mary Sue Reagan

Betty Lynn Regan and Mary Sue Reagan were two of the best history teachers at Rogers High School. Born and raised in Rogers, these remarkable ladies started their education and graduated from Rogers. Betty Lynn Reagan attended Agnes Scott and the University of Arkansas each for two years. She then gained her Masters at Emery. Mary Sue Reagan attended the University of Arkansas and the University of Missouri.

They both believed that the reason they began teaching in the social studies department was because of their family background. Their family seemed to be involved in the government in many ways. They have kept up with the government better than most of the books they have taught out of.

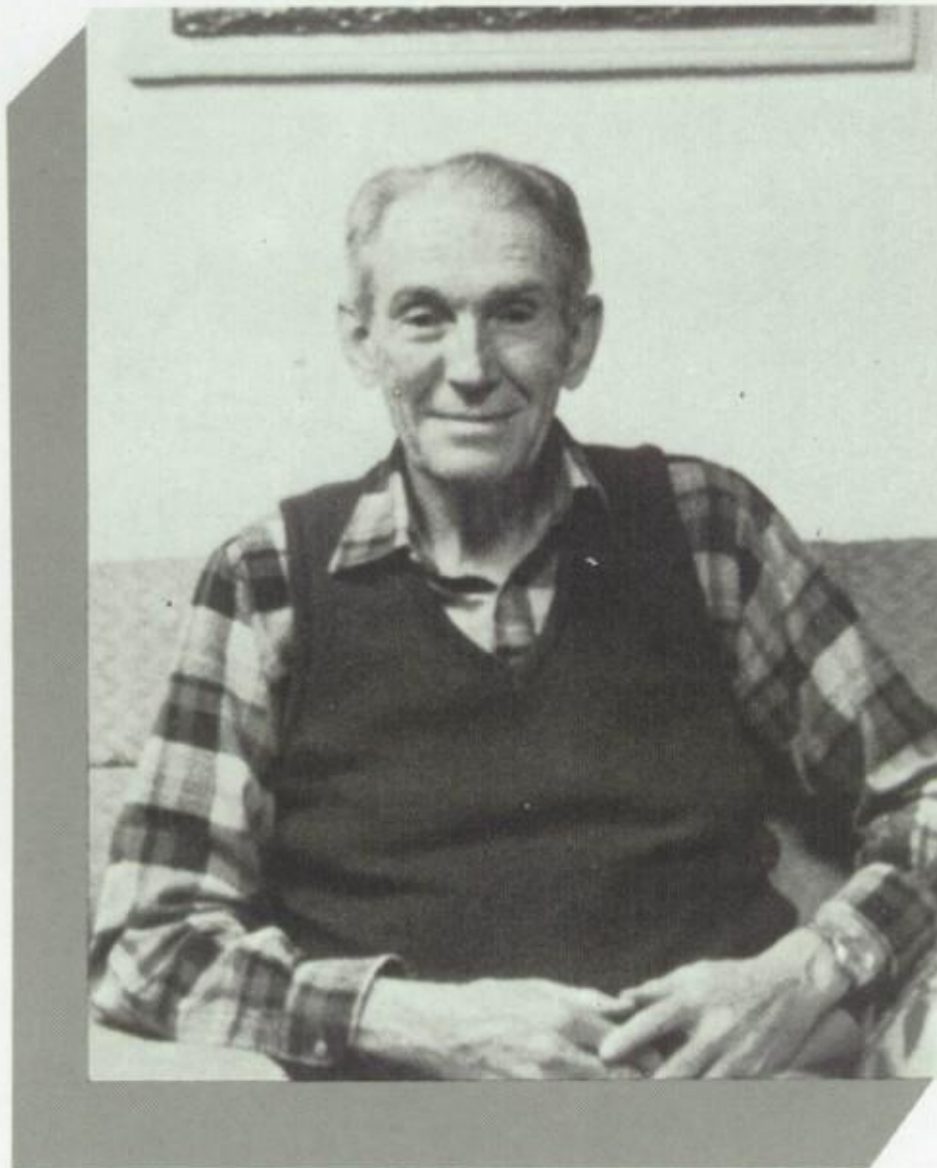

In past years, they were elected as sponsors of the junior and senior classes. One year, which they both recalled, they performed the play Around the World in Eighty Days. They also changed Coke bottles to paper cups at football games.

The subjects they taught ranged from Arkansas government to United States government and from United States history to world history. The teachers said they wanted their students to realize three things.

- 1) The importance of trying to make the country and community a better place.
- 2) There have been times like this before.
- 3) There is always room for improvement.

Dedication to
Greer Lingle

Greer Lingle is a man who believes in our education system.

"I have always been proud of Rogers students, and I believe that they compare favorably with other students. Rogers students are fortunate to grow up in a community like this one. Our people are interested in and willing to support good youth activities, and certainly, they demand good public schools," Lingle said.

"I think the Rogers staff is one of the better ones in this state. Teachers are competent, well-trained ... relate well with the students and are dedicated to the job," Lingle said.

Lingle was born Jan. 31, 1918, in Coal Hill, AR. He graduated in 1936 from Coal Hill High School at a time when the United States was in the Great Depression.

He married in 1936, and eventually became the father of Jim, a local attorney, and Myra, who lives with her husband and kids in Washington D.C.

After high school, Lingle decided to become a teacher and studied at Arkansas Tech before getting a job at Coal Hill. Then during World War II, he joined the Air Force.

After the war, he worked for a steel company in Detroit.

He continued his education at the College of the Ozarks and at the University of Arkansas, and began teaching history and math at Ozark where he was also superintendent. Coach Bond was one of his Ozark students.

From 1951 until 1953, he was the principal of Alma High School.

Then Lingle became superintendent for Rogers Schools from 1955 until 1983.

Even now, he is serving the community. Lingle was on the United Fund Board for three years. Now he serves on the Executive Committee for the Northwest Community College in Rogers.

We all

Hung In . . .

Together

We're All in This Together

We all come into high school wondering what now, "what if." Without unity and support from those around us, we could not make it through our everyday activities. Everyone must learn to treat people as they are, not as others view them. In our everyday activities we come in contact with a lot of people, without getting to know them. If it could be boiled down to one thing that our school needs to achieve that would be unity. Our school and all of our teachers and the administrators have donated so much time and effort into our lives. If they were not there for us, things would have been difficult for us to handle. If anyone deserves credit it is these people. They will always play a big part in the way we view things. There is nothing nicer than knowing someone out there is concerned for just you. Our theme "We're all in this together," says it all. If we remember this we will be able to enhance the lives of all those around us. The world is a large place, but through cooperation the gap can be narrowed. This is true in our very own school. The Mountie spirit will always go on if we can just show it. Before we complain about the way things are going, we may first need to ask what we are doing to change these things. If everyone will pull together we can all grow from each other. But most of all we must remember that we really are all in this together.

KENNY FIZER: PHOTO EDITOR

This year in yearbook I had a lot of fun and crazy times as time progressed into the school year. There was a lot of extra time I put in, from weekdays when school was out; to weekends on early morning Saturdays. Through time, I learned things about photoprocessing, but yet, I didn't learn all the things to be a professional, but amateur wise, you can say I'm so-so about it. The thing I most liked about this year was the support everyone gave me from the yearbook staff, students around the school, the activities of clubs, and of course the student council. This over all showed me through school years time showed what this school has, a bunch of pride and most of all school spirit!!

TAMMY OAKES: COPY EDITOR

When I was told I had a spot in the yearbook for myself, to write what I wanted to, I couldn't think of much to say. In this book we've tried to have more copy, and to an extent I think we succeeded. Working on the yearbook this past year sure has been fun and definitely a lot of work, but in the end the fun out-weighted the work. A very special thanks goes out to Trisha Bergant for putting up with me screaming at her when something wasn't done right or on time, and for her help with the class pages, typing, and everything else she has done. Others who deserve thanks are Bill Walker, my sister Kim, Brooke Lemons, and the rest of the staff for hanging in there with the copy "mix-ups" etc., I couldn't have met all the deadlines without them.

BILL WALKER: BUSINESS MANAGER

I would like to thank all of the are businesses for their ongoing support. Without their backing this yearbook would not have been possible. The ads pages are not the most exciting but they are the backbone of such a publication. I also want to thank Tammy Oakes, Regina Searcy, Ann Elliott, Kenny Fizer, and our editor Gardner Burton. The summer full of ad selling had a bum start, seeing how I tried to kill my car and a motorcycle. At the end of the summer four of us, including Mr. Johnson, attended a yearbook camp in Conway. We all had fun in there and I'm sorry its over.

GARDNER BURTON: EDITOR

Last year I spent a lot of time with the students and teachers in deciding what should go in this year's book. I got a lot of good ideas and tried to use as many of them as I could, of course, I could not use them all. I do hope you notice the improvements. Trisha Bergant, our talented layout editor, drew up most of the layouts. Kim Foster drew most of the art work for the book, as well as the cover. Tammy Oakes spent endless hours on typing stories for the book, including three weekends on the index. Kenny Fizer spent just about every day after school working in the darkroom. Bill Walker spent all summer calling up businesses about ads, with the assistance of Regina Searcy. During the year, Patti Nelson spent many hours working on pages and developing film. Brooke Lemons, who came in at semester, helped out wherever she could. The rest of the staff followed us up by tying up the loose ends. My special thanks go out to Mr. Johnson, our advisor, who kept us going all year long, and to Susan Alderson, out Taylor representative, who helped us with our special questions and problems. Our extreme gratitudes go to Taylor Publishing Company.

We're all in this

Angela,

Ya know there's been alot of people I met this year esp. in choir. But you're gonna be one of the ones I'll remember the most because you always seemed to have a smile on your face. (Plus your excellent voice) Congradulations on your marriage! Take care & good luck!

It has been great remembering you these past few years! You have been a really great friend. Good luck in the future in what ever you do.

Angela, we'll think of dreams even made it. You are in school. I am still me when you don't talk as much stay as though we did last year. Good luck Sweet, and miss you! for being a super buddy!

Angela,

I can't believe how fast everything has gone by! It is still so clear in my mind that day in 10th grade when you came in 4th hour as "the new girl from Fayetteville" & showed us how it was done!! A lot has happened since then. I'm so glad that we've grown to become such good friends. There's no one else like you in this whole world! You're unique & really special, and I love you a lot! Well, now here we are in our last few days of high school! We've made it!! (well, almost!!) I'm so happy for you & Larry! I hope you all are the happiest people on earth --

"till death do you part!" Good luck in all of your future plans & adventures! May you always have a smile on your face & a song in your heart! Keep in touch! OKAY?! Love Always,
David Berry

Angela,
Hey Chick!
Well, this is it...eh? Can you believe it? I want to wish you all the luck & happiness w/ your new life. And World Affairs wouldn't have been the same w/out you being our timekeeper.
Keep in touch ya hear?

Angela,

Well we finally made it it's really hard to believe! I'll always remember the good ol days in choir in 10th grade. Those made some good memories especially region <sup>10th</sup> <sub>11th</sub> Hope you have a successful marriage. Have a great summer!

Love,
Jack

Angela
I'm glad that we have been such good friends
this year
all ways smile on you
you
I hope you and every thing lots of love
Jack

Angela, (Angel)
New Babe! I'm so glad we got to be closer this year!
Choir would not have been the same w/out you!
Thank for all your support and thank for being there for me! and always here if you ever need to talk! Good luck w/ Larry!
I'll really miss you! Well keep in touch! Right!
Well Babe I better
quit before I
start to bore you!
Don't forget me!
Keep in touch!

Angela,
 I can't believe it been almost 3 years since you moved here! You're a really sweet girl with a beautiful voice! Good luck next year in college. I hope that you & Larry will have a happy & successful marriage!

Well, this year is finally over, and I must say I couldn't have made it without you. You have been a really good friend to me, and I hope I've been the same.
 Good luck in the future and with Larry. You will be hearing from me
 this summer and
 next year.
